

CITY COUNCIL AGENDA ITEM NO. I.2.c
09/26/2023

SUBJECT: Consider a Request of September 12, 2023, from Council Member Pierson regarding Senior Center programming survey and input from the Parks & Recreation Commission regarding the Parks & Recreation Director's evaluation

DEPARTMENT: City Manager's Office

STAFF: Tim Ogden, City Manager
Margaret Wimberly, City Clerk

TITLE/RECOMMENDATION

That the City Council consider and discuss the request from Council Member Pierson as stated at the City Council meeting of September 12, 2023, regarding Senior Center Programming and input from the Park & Recreation Commission regarding the Parks & Recreation Director's evaluation.

FISCAL IMPACT

There is no fiscal impact associated with this action, however an internal survey could cost up to $5,000, or an independent investigation/surveying of senior center staff and members of the public could cost approximately $15,000. Any costs, should they be incurred, would require funding by the General Fund.

BACKGROUND

Meeting Recording Transcript of Detailed Request (Zoom transcript may not fully represent what was actually said):

"I would like a future agenda item request consistent with Municipal Code section 2.46.020 which would have the Arts Commission (later clarified to the Park and Recreation Commission) hold a public meeting on the senior center of programming and facility usage and that they are asked to conduct an investigation, including surveying staff and members of the public for the purpose of obtaining facts and data concerning direct programs and staffing.

"Also, if it has not happened this year, per the Municipal Code, I would request the Arts Commission (later clarified to the Park and Recreation Commission) be included on the next evaluation of the Parks and Recreation Director, with this information
