On October 10, 2023, the City Council adopted Resolution 2023-122 approving amendments to City Council/Administrative Policy No. 110-, Meeting Rules and Procedures; sections 3.2, which clarified that the agenda order may be changed pursuant to Section 4.3, by the Mayor or Vice-Mayor (in the Mayor's absence) and 5.2 which pertains to public speaking times, and allows the Mayor to reduce public speaking times for reasons other than an anticipated large number of speakers of the City's Meeting Rules and Procedures (Policy 110-1). The City Council further provided direction to staff to: Provide opportunity for virtual public comments for agenda items only, and verbal public comments on items not on the agenda will be taken in person only.

On January 23, 2024, Vice Mayor Meyer requested a future agenda related to reconsideration and evaluation of the public comment period on City Agendas.
